

1 Washington Daily News, Francis Porter. (Applause.)

2 I have had three notes passed to me now indi-
3 cating a serious oversight. I assure you, it is not. My
4 own Secretary, Mrs. Looker, refuses to come in. (Applause.)

5 And Dick Homan, will you stand? (Applause.)

6 Mark Goodfield. (Applause.)

7 Delegate Borom.

8 DELEGATE BOROM: Mr. Chairman, I think that
9 we ought to let the record show that the last three re-
10 porters coming in are on supplemental roll call. (Applause.)

11 THE PRESIDENT: Resolution No. 52, the clerk
12 will read the entire resolution.

13 MR. QUILLEN: Resolution No. 52, by Delegate
14 Penniman, Chairman of the Committee on Style, Drafting
15 and Arrangement.

16 THE PRESIDENT: If you have copies, the clerk
17 will read the title only.

18 MR. QUILLEN: A RESOLUTION authorizing the
19 Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement to make cer-
20 tain clerical changes to achieve uniformity in the style
21 of the proposed Constitution.
